

Partnership Programmes 2023-24

The Association of Image Consultants International is the leading and largest association of image professionals in the world. AICI members are experts in the areas of appearance, behaviour and communication - including fashion, beauty, styling, etiquette, personality, presentation, wellness and personal development.

The AICI Canada Chapter has created some exciting partnership opportunities for organizations that could benefit from getting their name and brand in front of our group! You can choose the level of partnership that best suits your needs or choose individual features.
